Dear Charles and Virginia:

Since day before yesterday Werner has been in the local Penitenciary. For a week before he had had house arrest and we were happy. We haven't the remotest idea why they arrested him or what's going to happen to him and the many others there. And they won't let me see anyone to find out the charges against him or to do any explaining. Heidi wakes up at nite screaming "Papi, papi" and today is Ingrid's first birthday.

Thank God, the kids are well; and I have a wonderful older woman to help me & leave them with when I drive to San José to spend a short 15 minutes with Werner and do all the chores.

As you see, my heart is breaking –

With all my love,
Sturr
