Kenedy, Texas,

SWISS LEGATION
Washington, D.C.

After having been interned in Ciudad Truillo, (La Cumbre) Santo, Domingo, R.D., from December 12th 1941 to May 18th 1942, I was transported from there to Kenedy, Texas, U.S.A., Alien Detention Camp, where I arrived on May 25th.

Having been obliged to leave Santo Domingo without previous notice and not being allowed in any way to settle my personal affairs, I arrived here practically without clothes and means to purchase any.

In Ciudad Truillo I have deposited in hands of the Spanish Legation, to the Spanish Ambassador respectively, the amount of $ 582.- (five hundred eighty two Dollars), which please have encashed and transferred to me, if possible by cable, in care of Mr. A.S. Hudson, Chief of Alien Funds, Alien Funds, Kenedy, Texas. - By same mail I will request the Spanish Legation in Ciudad Truillo, R.D. to keep said amount at your disposal.

I am 61 years of age and would appreciate, if possible, to be included, in the list of those to be exchanged to Germany by first opportunity.

Thanking you in advance for your kindness and trouble,

I remain,

Respectfully Yours,

S. Schneider
